PETITIONING THE COURT*To issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1 | #14: Defendant is prohibited from returning to the United States without advance legal permission from the United States Attorney General or his designee. Should Defendant reenter the United States, Defendant is required to report to the probation office within 72 hours of reentry. |
|---|---|

Supporting Evidence: Maria Teresa Quintero-Diaz is considered in violation of her conditions of supervised release by returning to the United States without obtaining advance legal permission from the U.S. Attorney General or his designee, and failing to report to the probation office within 72 hours of reentry.

Information was received on October 18, 2016, by a Benton County juvenile probation officer, that he had contact with Ms. Quintero-Diaz at a Costco store in Kennewick, WA, on October 16, 2017. The juvenile probation officer had a conversation with Ms. Diaz, in which she stated "you didn't see me" in what the probation officer determined was a joking manner. The probation officer stated the contact was ended shortly thereafter. It is unknown where Ms. Quintero-Diaz is living, or when she reentered the United States. Contact with the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement revealed the offender has not obtained permission to reenter the United States.
